POPS OPENING SOON
NEWEST ICON ON ROUTE 66 HIRES GENERAL MANAGER
POPS JOB FAIR TO BE HELD JUNE 7

June 1, 2007
For Immediate Release

Arcadia, OK-- It is a beautiful building, rising out of the Deep Fork Valley and creating a lot of conversation. POPS, the newest icon along the Mother Road which includes a gas station, café, convenience store, and the world's largest collection of soda pop, is a step closer to opening its doors with today's hiring announcement of its new General Manager, Marty Doepke.

Doepke is a veteran of the food service industry. He comes to POPS from his work with Aramark over the past 3 ½ years, as Food Service Director for Prepaid Legal, Inc., overseeing the company's corporate dining facilities. The 35-year old also has a great deal of management experience, including 12 years as General Manager of the Oak Hills Golf & Country Club in Ada, Oklahoma.

"I am thrilled to be heading the POPS team," said Doepke. "The potential for POPS is enormous; we are taking one of the most unique buildings in Oklahoma and combining it with an outstanding menu and employees. I am delighted to be on the ground floor and can't wait to open the doors to POPS." Doepke is married to his wife Denise, a Special Education teacher, and they have 3 children; Zackary, Andrew, and Laura.

The new General Manager is ready to hire some enthusiastic, top-notch employees to help him open POPS. "We are announcing a job fair that will take place at the historic Arcadia Round Barn, just down the road from POPS on historic Route 66.

The job fair will be held June 7th from 2-6pm. Applicants are asked to bring their resumes and apply in person or call Marty to make an appointment at 843-7777, extension 767. Doepke says he plans to open the doors to POPS the first week of July.
